

BARGAINING BULLETIN #9 2/11/10

The Union and Company bargaining committees and their respective subject matter experts (SME's) met today in bargaining session nine. Discussions were held regarding the Companies proposed changes in titles and compensation plans for our Consumer Sales Consultants and Language Assistance- Consumer Sales Consultants. Additional information has been requested by the Union for this proposal as well as others that have been previously introduced. Research and response preparation will continue into the evening in preparation for tomorrow's negotiations.
