Bargaining Bulletin #70

Monday, July 13, 2009

Your committee has been busy since our last report. We met in both formal and informal sessions with the company last week, over the weekend and into Sunday evening. We continue to make incremental progress, but it has been tedious and difficult. We have reached tentative agreement on a number of items, and continue to work on many others. There are still some major issues on which we remain significantly apart.

Please keep up the mobilization pressure! Your Gold-plated, safe and high quality work is what will move the company to reach a fair & equitable settlement.

We are the team that can make the company successful! Or not! We deserve our fair share of this company's profits.

STRIKE STANDBY DAY 100!
